

The Medic Anthem

Lyrics: Mark Khoo
Music: Mona Tan

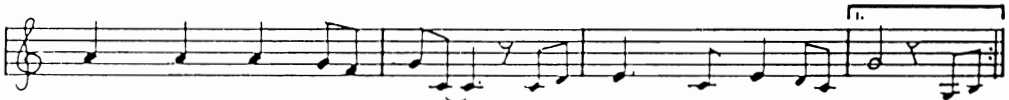

1. In Medi-cine was born a vision A- dream of com-mit-ment and verve. To be
2. Yet as me- dics we know the hardship The Stru- ggle and the tra- vail. How
3. We are heirs to a no- ble calling A tra- di- tion of ho- nour and pride. A bea- cons of chari- ty and honour To live lives willing to serve To bring lone- ly can be the learning How easy it is to fail Yet tomi- ssion not to self not to glory But to love, scri- fice to life Yet hope to all who need us To che- rish the trust we know To gether we find a blessing se- curi- ty in friends who care privileged are we in our giving May we re- member our (Coda) al- ways strive toward wisdom To al- ways yearn to grow. 2. Yet as courage to strive for our vision And strength to get us there Such is the Medi- cine spi- rit A u- ni- ty of fel- lows and peers A bro- ther- hood that knows no bounds a love that trans- cends the years. 3 We are debts to God, to Men, to Medi- cine to Medics whose steps we tread.
