

Are You Old Enough

Paul Hewson

Moderate

Ten years in the gaol-er's eye_ and I'm think-in' 'bout my ba-by, look-in' at my life go by. Fal-lin' in the streets_ of Rome_ and I'm laugh-in' at the poor man talk-in' to the blind_ man.

See the la-dy in the street car lights,_ co-lour a' la Tou-louse,_

Tel-e-vis-ion and_ red-red wine, so won't you tell me, won't you tell me the truth.

Chorus

Are you old e-nough,_(Woo hoo)_ are you old e-nough, are you old e-nough_ for love?_

1. 2. 3. D.S. & Rpt. chorus to fade

2. Time goes and here we stand,
 Laughin' at the side show,
 Sinkin' in the quicksand.
 The other side of another world,
 Scratch my back,
 For the coloured girl, yeah, oh yeah.
 I just wanted to kiss someone,
 I got the moondog blues,
 You just happen to be standing there,
 So won't you tell me,
 Won't you tell me the truth.
 Are you old enough, etc.
