I Lost My Heart In Dixieland

By IRVING BERLIN

Moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a series of chords and eighth-note patterns, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with some triplet figures. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'.

The first vocal line is on a single staff. The lyrics are: "I'm al-ways los-ing some-thing / I'm go-ing back to Dix-ie". The piano accompaniment continues below, featuring triplet figures in the right hand and a steady bass line.

The second vocal line is on a single staff. The lyrics are: "ev-'ry place I go and look for my heart / Just why I don't know / You and I must part / And it worries me / I'm al-ready to". The piano accompaniment continues below.

The third vocal line is on a single staff. The lyrics are: "so start / Last year I lost a dia-mond ring that used to shine / Send all my mail to Dix-ie that's where I am bound / And the / I may". The piano accompaniment continues below.

The fourth vocal line is on a single staff. The lyrics are: "oth-er day while stay down there for / trav'-ling ev-er, / be-low the be-cause my / Mas-on Dix-on line / heart may ne'er be found". The piano accompaniment continues below.
