The whole piece should be performed in a fixed tempo without any ritardandi, thus creating an impression of a bumble bee eagerly flying in a sunny meadow, where the key changes indicate her visit to different flowers.

The repeated rhythmic patterns behind the melody should be very exact, but still light and non accented. However – the two forte sections will gain from having more stressed syncopations in all parts.

The creative vision I had when writing Bumble Bee was to place the pure and simple poem in an effortless and ever flowing musical world. The message is quite clear – we should try not to take the wonders of life for granted, whether evident or yet unknown. The deeper meaning of this will vary between individuals, so please find you own personal rendering.
